

Victor Nutter

Victor Nutter is the Environmental Manager for Entergy Nuclear Northeast in White Plains, N.Y. and provides environmental support to the four nuclear sites in the Northeast. He has a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from Bradley University and a M.S. in Environmental Engineering Science from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Mr. Nutter has held several management positions at Indian Point for 18 years, and holds 2 patents for collecting and packaging hazardous particulate materials. Mr. Nutter is part of the IPEC Emergency Plan Team and serves as one of the offsite radiological assessment managers.